

TRULY TASTY

Truly Tasty: the cookbook aimed at adults living with kidney disease was officially launched in Fallon and Byrne on the 13th of April. All royalties from the book are going to the Irish Kidney Association.

Ann Jenkins, Senior Dietitian Mount Carmel Hospital, met with MINISTER FOR HEALTH AND CHILDREN, Mary Harney to officially inform her of the books publication. Halóg Mellett, Renal Clinical Specialist, AMNCH was at the launch of TRULY TASTY along with Dr. Liam Plant, National Director of Renal Services, John Mc Kenna, Food Critic from the Bridgestone Guide, Mark Murphy, Chair of the IKA and Val Twomey the founder of the book TRULY TASTY. The book is available online at www.trulytasty.ie and all bookshops. Please go out and support it!

L-R – Marie Sheahan (CUH), Barbara Gillman (Mater), Fiona Byrne (CUH)

L-R – Tara Rafferty (Beaumont), Edel Woods (Abbott Ireland), Halog Mellett (AMNCH), Oonagh Deeney (Beaumont)

L-R – Anne Jenkins (Mount Carmel), Derry Clarke (Chef), Val Twomey (Founder of Truly Tasty), Vivienne Traynor (Journalist)

Halog Mellett (AMNCH)

Barbara Gillman (Mater)

L-R – Richie Wilson (Executive Head Chef, the Morrison Hotel), Craig Skelton (General Manager, Abbott Ireland Ltd - Main sponsor), Melissa Sheridan (Senior product Manager, Abbott Ireland Ltd), Minister Mary Harney, Val Twomey, Mark Murphy (Chief Executive of The Irish Kidney Association), Brian Moore (Journalist), Ann Jenkins